

Carstens & Cahoon 2017 Intellectual Property Scholarship

Carstens & Cahoon, LLP has partnered with the JL Turner Legal Association Foundation to offer the third annual Carstens & Cahoon $1000 scholarship to a diverse law student interested in Intellectual Property.

The following criteria are to be considered:

- Science or Engineering undergraduate degree (strongly preferred)
- Demonstrated interest in or commitment to Intellectual Property Law (courses, seminars, club memberships, USPTO registration, etc.)
- Connection to DFW and/or Intent to practice in DFW
- US Citizen or permanent resident
- Current law student at accredited law school
- In good academic standing (verified with current transcript)
- Not yet a licensed attorney (either enrolled in law school or studying for bar exam)
- Current Resume
- ESSAY: please describe your interest in IP and your desire to practice law in DFW or Texas (1 page maximum)

DEADLINE TO APPLY is 9/30/2017.

Please send application materials to Kandace Walter, Chair of the JL Turner Legal Association Foundation, by 9/30/2017. Materials will be accepted by email (Kandace@walterlegal.com) or facsimile (469-331-7922).

The scholarship recipient will be notified by 10/7/2017 and will receive one ticket and an additional complimentary ticket for a guest to the 2017 JL Turner Legal Association Foundation Annual Scholarship Gala in Dallas which will be held on October 21, 2017 at InterContinental Dallas.